

Keynote address by one of the nation's top newsmakers.

More than 300 learning sessions in newspaper, yearbook, magazine, broadcast, online, advising, media law and more.

Pre-convention workshops in leadership, broadcasting, writing, photography, team storytelling and more.

Media tours to top attractions and media outlets.

On-site critiques and competitions, including NSPA Best of Show, JEA Write-offs and National Journalism Quiz Bowl.

Swap Shop and Break with a Pro events for sharing experience and gaining career information.

Products, services and educational opportunities at the trade show.

JEA/NSPA SPRING NATIONAL HIGH SCHOOL JOURNALISM CONVENTION

HILTON ANAHEIM HOTEL | ANAHEIM, CALIFORNIA | APRIL 25-27, 2019

anaheim.journalismconvention.org | jea.org | nspa.studentpress.org

ANAHEIM.JOURNALISMCONVENTION.ORG

 jea. NSPA

HILTON ANAHEIM HOTEL

777 W. Convention Way
Anaheim, CA 92802

Room rates: $249/night single/double or triple/quad, plus tax.

Reservation deadline: March 30, 2019

REGISTRATION	EARLY-BIRD	STANDARD
JEA and/or NSPA members	$99	$109
Nonmembers	$119	$129
Nonmember Professionals (not students or advisers)	$159	$159

Save money by registering before the early-bird deadline, April 3, 2019, and by joining JEA and NSPA.

In The Golden State, there are rays of knowledge waiting to be soaked up by journalism students and advisers when thousands of them descend on Anaheim for the 2019 JEA/NSPA Spring National High School Journalism Convention.

Disneyland is only the most well-known of Anaheim's attractions. Shopping and restaurant options abound, with Downtown Disney, The Block at Orange and the Anaheim Garden Walk providing no less than three modern, open-air retail/entertainment centers. Dozens of beaches reside within 30 miles of Anaheim. Los Angeles is immediately to the north and San Diego is a short drive south from the city.

And all under one roof, in April at the Hilton Anaheim Hotel, you'll find the most student journalism expertise available anywhere in one place. Leave the #FakeNews behind and join us in Anaheim to learn about covering REAL STORIES and REAL NEWS.